Mr. Harold Weisberg
Coq d'Or Press
Route #8
Frederick, Maryland 21701

Dear Harold:

Just a note to acknowledge receipt of your letters of 22 and 23 February 1971.

You are certainly moving along, and I hope that you achieve the judicial breakthrough that is needed in order for us to begin to unravel this whole mess.

Incidentally, the Kansas Federal Court dismissed Dr. John Nichols' suit. It seems that the lines of governmental authority are still rigidly and firmly drawn on this JFK matter. I wish that I could be optimistic, but I can't.

With kind regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril
